Article 1 The present Law is formulated for purposes of regulating the procedures for enterprise bankruptcy, fairly settling the credits and debts, safeguarding the legitimate rights and interests of creditors and debtors, and maintaining the market order of the socialist economy.

Article 2 Where an enterprise legal person fails to clear off its debt as due, and if its assets are not enough to pay off all the debts or if it is obviously incapable of clearing off its debts, its liabilities shall be liquidated according to the provisions of the present Law.

Where an enterprise legal person is under the aforesaid circumstance or if it is obviously likely that it is unable to pay off its debts, it may be subject to revival according to the provisions of the present Law.

Article 3 A bankruptcy case shall be governed by the people's court where the relevant debtor is domiciled.

Article 4 The procedures for hearing a bankruptcy case shall, in the absence of relevant provisions in the present Law, be governed by the relevant provisions of the Civil Litigation Law .

Article 5 The procedures for bankruptcy which have been initiated according to the present Law shall have binding force over the assets of the relevant debtor beyond the territory of the People's Republic of China.

Where any legally effective judgment or ruling made by a foreign court involves any debtor's assets within the territory of the People's Republic of China and if the debtor applies with or requests the people's court to confirm or enforce it, the people's court shall, according to the relevant international treaties that China has concluded or acceded to or according to the principles of reciprocity, conduct an examination thereon and, when believing that it does not violate the basic principles of the laws of the People's Republic of China, does not damage the sovereignty, safety or social public interests of the state, does not damage the legitimate rights and interests of the creditor within the territory of the People's Republic of China, grant confirmation and permission for enforcement.

Article 6 In the hearing of a bankruptcy case, the people's court shall guarantee the legitimate rights and interests of the employees in the insolvent enterprise and subject its managers to legal liabilities.

Chapter II Application and Acceptance

Section I Application

Article 7 Where a debtor is under the circumstance as prescribed by Article 2 of the present Law, it may file an application with the people's court for revival, compromise or bankrupt liquidation.

Where the debtor fails to pay off its due debts, it may file an application with the people's court for revival or bankrupt liquidation.

Where an enterprise legal person has been dissolved without any liquidation or without completing the liquidation and if the relevant assets are not enough to clear off the debts, the person liable for liquidation shall apply with the people's court for bankrupt liquidation.

Article 8 To apply for bankruptcy, an Application for Bankruptcy and the related evidences shall be submitted to the people's court:

The following matters shall be indicated in the Application for Bankruptcy:

- (1) Basic introduction to the applicant and respondent;
- (2) Purpose of application;
- (3) Facts and ground of the application; and
- (4) Any other matter that the people's court deems necessary to be indicated.

Where a debtor files an application, it shall submit the statements on financial status, a checklist of debts, a checklist of the credit right, the relevant financial statements, a reserve plan for employee arrangement as well as the payment documents of wages and social insurance premiums.

Article 9 Before the people's court accepts an application for bankruptcy, the applicant may request for withdrawing its application.

Section II Acceptance

Article 10 Where a creditor files an application for bankruptcy, the people's court shall, within 5 days as of the day when the application is received, inform the related debtor. Where a debtor has any different opinion to an application, it shall put forward its demurral to the people's court within 7 days as of the day when a notice is received from the people's court. The people's court shall decide whether or not to accept the case within 10 days as of expiration of the term for filing a demurral.

Except for the circumstance as prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the people's court shall decide whether or not to accept an application for bankruptcy within 15 days as of the day when the application is received.

Under any special circumstance where the term for accepting a case as prescribed in the preceding two paragraphs is required to be extended, it may be extended for another 15 days upon the approval of the people's court at a higher level.

Article 11 Where the people's court accepts an application for bankruptcy, it shall serve it on the relevant applicant within 5 days as of the day when the decision is made.

Where a creditor files an application, the people's court shall serve it on the relevant debtor within 5 days as of the day when a decision is made. The relevant debtor shall, within 15 days as of the day when a decision is served, submit to the people's court its statements on financial status, a checklist of debts, a checklist of the creditor's right, the relevant financial statements as well as the payment documents of wages and social insurance premiums.

Article 12 Where the people's court decides not to accept an application for bankruptcy, it shall serve its decision on the applicant within 5 days as of the day when the decision is made. Where an applicant is dissatisfied with the decision, it may, within 10 days as of the day when the decision is served, file an appeal with the people's court at the next higher level.

During the period from when the people's court accepts an application for bankruptcy to when a bankruptcy is announced, where it is found that the relevant debtor is not under the circumstance as prescribed by Article 2 of the present Law, its application may be rejected. Where an applicant is dissatisfied with a decision, it may, within 10 days as of the day when the decision is served on, file an appeal with the people's court at the next higher level.

Article 13 Where the people's court accepts an application for bankruptcy, it shall designate a bankruptcy administrator in the meanwhile.

Article 14 The people's court shall, within 25 days as of the day when it decides to accept an application for bankruptcy, notify the relevant creditors and announce its decision as well.

The following matters shall be indicated in the aforesaid notice and announcement:

- (1) Name of the applicant and respondent;
- (2) The time when the people's court accepts the application for bankruptcy;
- (3) Term, address and points of attention in the declaration of the creditor's right;
- (4) Name of the bankruptcy administrator as well as the address where it undertakes its business;
- (5) Requirements that the debtors or asset holders of the debtor shall clear off the debts or deliver the assets;
- (6) The time and place where the first creditors' meeting is held; and
- (7) Any other matter that the people's court deems necessary to be notified and announced.

Article 15 During the period from the day when the people's court decides to accept an application for bankruptcy to the day when the procedures for bankruptcy are concluded, the relevant personnel of the debtor shall bear the following obligations:

- (1) Properly preserving the assets, seals and account books as well as documents under its occupation and management;
- (2) Working according to the requirements of the people's court and bankruptcy administrator and answering their inquiries in a faithful manner;
- (3) Attending the creditor's meeting and answering the creditors' inquiries;
- (4) Not leaving its domicile in the absence of permission of the people's court; and
- (5) Not assuming any post of director, supervisor or senior manager in any other enterprise.

The term "relevant personnel" as mentioned in the preceding paragraph are the legal representatives of an enterprise, which may, upon approval of the people's court, include the financial managers and other operators of the enterprise.

Article 16 After the people's court accepts an application for bankruptcy, the repayment of debts made by a debtor to individual creditors shall be invalidated.

Article 17 After the people's court accepts an application for bankruptcy, the debtors or asset holders of the debtor shall pay off the debts or deliver the relevant assets to the bankruptcy administrator.

Where any debtor or asset holder purposely violates the provisions of the preceding paragraph by paying off its debts or delivering the assets to the debtor and thus incurs losses to the relevant creditors, its obligation of paying off the debts or delivering the assets shall not be exempted.

Article 18 After the people's court accepts an application for bankruptcy, the relevant bankruptcy administrator shall decide to rescind or continue to perform a contract that has been established before acceptance yet has not been fully performed by both parties concerned and notify the opposite party concerned of its decision. Where the bankruptcy administrator fails to inform the opposite party concerned within 2 months as of the day of acceptance or to make any reply to an urge made by the opposite party concerned, it shall be deemed as rescission of the contract.

Where the bankruptcy administrator decides to continue a contract, the opposite party concerned shall continue the performance of the contract yet has the right to request the administrator to provide guaranty. - (8)Waiver of the right;
- (9)Withdrawal of the pledge; and
- (10)Any other property disposal that has an important impact on the creditor's interest.

In the case of no such creditors' committee, a bankruptcy administrator shall, when implementing the aforesaid provisions, report it to the people's court in a timely manner.

Chapter VIII Revival

Section I Application for and Period of Revival

Article 70 A debtor or creditor may, according to the provisions of the present Law, apply directly with the people's court for revival against the debtor.

Where any creditor applies for bankrupt liquidation against its debtor, after the people's court accepts the application for bankruptcy and before the debtor is announced bankrupt, the debtor or its capital contributor whose capital contribution makes up 1/10 or more of the debtor's registered capital may apply with the people's court for revival.

Article 71 Where the people's court deems, upon examination, that an application for revival complies with the provisions of the present Law, it shall order the debtor to be revived and announce its decision as well.

Article 72 The period of revival lasts from the day when the people's court rules that a debtor shall conduct revival to the day when the procedures for revival are terminated.

Article 73 In the duration of revival, a debtor may, upon filing an application and obtaining an approval from the people's court, manage its assets and business operation under the supervision of its bankruptcy administrator.

Under the circumstance as prescribed in the preceding paragraph, a bankruptcy administrator that has taken over the assets and business operation shall deliver the assets and business operation to the debtor according to the provisions of the present Law, and the bankruptcy administrator's functions and duties as prescribed herein shall be exercised by the debtor.

Article 74 A bankruptcy administrator that takes charge of assets and business operations may employ the business managers of the debtor to take care of the business operations.

Article 75 In the duration of revival, the right to guaranty on the particular assets of a debtor shall be suspended. However, in the case of possible damage or significant depreciation of value, which may injure the guarantor's right, the guarantor may apply with the people's court for recovering the right to guaranty.

In the period of revival, a debtor or bankruptcy administrator that borrows money for business carry-on may set a guaranty on the loan.

Article 76 Where a debtor legally occupies any other's property and if the owner of the property right requests to take back the property, it shall meet the requirements as stipulated in advance.

Article 77 During the period of revival, no capital contributor of a debtor may request for distribution of any investment proceeds.

During the period of revival, no director, supervisor or senior manager of a debtor may transfer the equity it has held to a third party, unless the people's court approves it.

Article 78 In the duration of revival, under any of the following circumstances, the people's court shall, upon the request of a bankruptcy administrator or any interested party, rule to terminate the procedures for revival and announce the relevant debtor bankrupt:

(1)Where the business operation or financial status of a debtor goes worse off and cannot be remedied in any way;

(2)Where a debtor has any act of cheating or maliciously deducting its assets or has any act obviously against its creditors; or

(3)Where the act of a debtor makes its bankruptcy administrator unable to perform its duties and functions.

Section II Formulation and Approval of a Revival Plan

Article 79 A debtor or bankruptcy administrator may, within 6 months as of the day when the people's court approves its revival, submit a draft of the revival plan to the people's court and the creditors' meeting.

Where the term as prescribed in the preceding paragraph expires, the people's court may, upon request of any debtor or the bankruptcy administrator, and on a justifiable ground, rule an extension of 3 months.

Where a debtor or bankruptcy administrator fails to submit a draft of the revival plan according to the schedule, the people's court shall rule to terminate the procedures for revival and announce the debtor bankrupt.

Article 80 Where a debtor manages its own assets and business operations, it shall formulate a draft of revival plan.

Where a bankruptcy administrator takes charge of the assets and business operations of a debtor, it shall formulate a draft of revival plan.

Article 81 A draft of revival plan shall include the following contents:

(1)A business plan of a debtor;

- (2) Classification of the creditor's right;
- (3) An adjustment plan of the creditor's right;
- (4) A repayment plan of the creditor's right;
- (5) Term for implementing the revival plan;
- (6) Term for supervising the performance of the revival plan; and
- (7) Any other plan conducive to the debtor's revival.

Article 82 Where the relevant creditors who have the following creditor's rights attend the creditor's meeting to discuss a draft of revival plan, they shall be grouped according to the following creditor's rights so as to vote a draft of revival plan:

- (1) The creditor's right with guaranty on the debtor's particular assets;
- (2) The wages, subsidies for medical treatment and disability and comfort and compensatory funds as defaulted by the debtor, the fundamental old-age insurance premiums, fundamental medical insurance premiums that shall have been transferred into the individual accounts of employers as well as the compensation for the employees as prescribed by the relevant laws and administrative regulations;
- (3) The taxes as defaulted by the debtor; and
- (4) The common creditor's right.

The people's court shall, when it so requires, decide to set a group of the small-amount creditor's right in the group of the common creditor's right so as to vote a draft of revival plan.

Article 83 A revival plan shall not cover any stipulation on the exemption of the social insurance premium as defaulted by a debtor other than what is prescribed in item (2), paragraph 1, Article 82 of the present Law. The creditor of social insurance premiums shall not attend the voting of a draft of revival plan.

Article 84 The people's court shall, within 30 days as of the day when a draft of revival plan is received, hold a creditor's meeting so as to vote the draft.

Where 1/2 or more of the creditors in a same voting group at the creditors' meeting agree to a draft of revival plan, representing 2/3 or more of the total amount of the creditor's right, it shall be deemed as an adoption of the draft of revival plan.

The relevant creditors or bankruptcy administrator shall give an explanation to the draft of the revival plan and answer the relevant inquiries at the creditors' meeting.

Article 85 The representatives of capital contributors of a debtor may attend the creditor's meeting to discuss a draft of revival plan.

Where a draft of revival plan involves the adjustment of the right and interest of capital contributors, a group of capital contributors shall be formed to vote this issue.

Article 86 Where all the voting groups agree to a draft of revival plan, it shall be deemed that the plan is adopted.

Within 10 days as of the day when a revival plan is adopted, a creditor or bankruptcy administrator shall file an application with the people's court for approving the revival plan. Where the people's court deems, upon examination, that the application complies with the present Law, it shall, within 30 days as of the day when the application is received, grant an approval, terminate the relevant procedures for revival and announce it as well.

Article 87 Where some voting groups do not agree to a draft of revival plan, the relevant debtor or bankruptcy administrator may negotiate with the aforesaid voting groups. The latter may vote for one more times upon negotiation. The result of negotiation shall not damage the interest of any other voting group.

Where a voting group that does not agree to a draft of revival plan refuses to re-vote or disagrees with the draft of revival plan upon re-voting yet if the draft of revival plan meets the following requirements, the relevant debtor or bankruptcy administrator may apply with the people's court for approving the draft of revival plan.

(1)Where, according to a draft of revival plan, the creditor's right as prescribed in item (1), paragraph 1, Article 82 of the present Law shall be cleared off by means of the particular assets and the losses as incurred from postponed payment shall be compensated for in a fair manner, given that the right to guaranty has not been materially damaged, or the relevant voting groups have adopted the draft of revival plan;

(2)Where, according to the draft of revival plan, the creditor's right as prescribed in items (2) and (3) of paragraph 1, Article 82 of the present Law shall be cleared off, or the relevant voting groups have adopted the draft of revival plan;

(3)Where, according to the draft of revival plan, the repayment proportion of the common creditor's right shall not be any lower than that as set in the procedures for bankrupt liquidation when the draft of revival plan is submitted for approval, or the relevant contributor group has adopted the draft of revival plan;

(4)Where the draft of revival plan can bring a fair and justifiable adjustment to the rights and interests of capital contributors, or the contributor group has adopted the draft of revival plan;

(5)Where the draft of revival plan treats the members of a same voting group fairly and the liquidation order of the creditor's right does not violate the provisions of Article 113 of the present Law;

(6) Where the debtor's business plan is feasible.

Where the people's court deems that the draft of revival plan complies with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it shall, within 30 days as of the day when an application is received, approve it, terminate the procedures for revival and announce it.

Article 88 Where a draft of revival plan fails to be adopted and fails to be approved according to the provisions of Article 87 of the present Law, or where an adopted draft of revival plan fails to be approved, the people's court shall rule to terminate the procedures for revival and announce the debtor bankrupt.

Section III Implementation of a Revival Plan

Article 89 A revival plan shall be implemented under the debtor's charge.

Where the people's court decides to approve a revival plan, the bankruptcy administrator that has taken over the assets and business operation shall transfer the assets and business operation to the debtor.

Article 90 As of the day when the people's court decides to approve a revival plan and within the term for supervision as prescribed by the revival plan, the relevant bankruptcy administrator shall supervise the implementation thereof.

Within the term for supervision, a debtor shall report the implementation of its revival plan as well as its financial status to the relevant bankruptcy administrator.

Article 91 Upon expiration of the term for supervision, a bankruptcy administrator shall submit a supervision report to the people's court. As of the day when a supervision report is submitted, a bankruptcy administrator's functions and duties shall be terminated.

Where a bankruptcy administrator submits a supervision report with the people's court, any interested party to the revival plan has the right to consult therewith.

Upon application by a bankruptcy administrator, the people's court may decide to extend the term for supervision over the implementation of a revival plan.

Article 92 A revival plan as approved by the people's court has binding force on the debtor and all the creditors.

Where a creditor fails to its creditor's right according to the provisions of the present law, it shall not exercise any right when a revival plan is implemented. When the implementation of a revival plan is concluded, the relevant creditor may exercise its right according to the requirements for liquidation of identical creditor's right as prescribed in the revival plan.

The right of a creditor against the guarantor of its debtor as well as all the joint and several debtors shall not be affected by a revival plan.

Article 93 Where a debtor fails to or refuses to implement a revival plan, the people's court may, upon request of the relevant bankruptcy administrator or interested party, terminate the implementation of the revival plan and announce the debtor bankrupt.

Where the people's court decides to terminate the implementation of a revival plan, the commitment of the relevant creditor on the adjustment of the creditor's right in the revival plan shall be invalidated. The liquidation for the relevant creditor when the revival plan is implemented remains effective and the creditor's right that has not been repaid shall be regarded as the credit of bankruptcy.

The creditor as prescribed in the preceding paragraph may, only when the other creditors in the sequential order of the liquidation are repaid at a same proportion, continue to join the distribution.

Under any circumstance as prescribed in paragraph 1 of this Article, any guaranty set for the implementation of a revival plan shall continue to be effective.

Article 94 As to the liabilities that is exempted according to a revival plan, the relevant debtor is not required to make repayment therefor upon conclusion of the revival plan.

Chapter IX Compromise

Article 95 A debtor may, according to the provisions of the present Law, apply for compromise with the people's court; or may, after the people's court accepts its application for bankruptcy and before it is announced bankrupt, apply with the people's court for compromise.

Where the debtor applies for reconciliation, it shall put forwards a draft of the conciliation agreement.

Article 96 Where the people's court deems upon examination that an application for compromise complies with the provisions of the present Law, it shall rule on a compromise, announce it and hold a creditors' meeting so as to discuss the draft of a composition deed.

A holder of the right to guaranty on the debtor's particular assets may exercise its right as of the day when the people's court rules on a compromise.

Article 97 The adoption of a resolution of a composition deed at the creditors' meeting shall be based on the consent of 1/2 or more of the creditors with the right to vote who attend the meeting, representing 2/3 or more of the total credit amount free from property guaranty.

Article 98 Where a composition deed is adopted at the creditors' meeting, the people's court shall decide whether to confirm it, terminate the procedures for compromise and announce it. The relevant bankruptcy administrator shall transfer the assets and business operation to the debtor and submit a report on the performance of its functions and duties to the people's court.

Article 99 Where the draft of a composition deed fails to be adopted at the creditors' meeting or a composition deed that has been adopted at the creditors' meeting fails to be confirmed by the people's court, the people's court shall rule to terminate the procedures for compromise and announce the debtor bankrupt.

Article 100 A composition deed that has been confirmed by the people's court shall have a binding force on the debtor and all the creditors in the composition.

The term "creditor in the composition" refers to a party that enjoys the creditor's right free from property guaranty against its debtor when the people's court accepts the relevant application for bankruptcy.

Where any creditor in the composition fails to its creditor's right according to the provisions of the present Law, it may not exercise its right during the period when the composition deed is conducted. After the implementation of a composition deed is concluded, it may exercise its right according to the requirements for repayment as prescribed by the composition deed.

Article 101 The right as enjoyed by the creditor in the composition against the guarantor of its debtor and other joint and several debtors shall not be affected by any composition deed.

Article 102 A debtor shall pay off its debts according to the conditions as prescribed in the relevant composition deed.

Article 103 As to any composition deed that is established by fraud or based on any illegal act of a debtor, the people's court shall rule it as ineffective and announce the debtor bankrupt.

Under any of the aforesaid circumstances, the repayment that a creditor in the composition gets when the composition deed is performed shall not be returned at the same proportion as the other creditors.

Article 104 Where a debtor is unable or fails to implement a composition deed, the people's court shall, upon request of the creditor in the composition, rule to terminate the implementation of the composition deed, and announce the debtor bankrupt.

Where the people's court terminates the implementation of a composition deed, the commitment as made by the creditor in the composition on the adjustment of the creditor's right shall be invalidated. The repayment made to the creditor in the composition when the composition deed is implemented shall still be effective and the creditor's right in the composition that has not been repaid shall be the credit of bankruptcy.

The creditor as prescribed in the preceding paragraph may, only when sharing the repayment at a same proportion as the other creditors, continue to join the distribution.

Under the circumstance as prescribed in paragraph 1 of this Article, the guaranty set on the implementation of a composition deed shall remain effective.

Article 105 After the people's court accepts an application for bankruptcy, if the relevant debtor and all the creditors conclude an agreement on settlement of credits and debts by themselves, they may request the court to confirm it and terminate the procedures for bankruptcy.

Article 106 As to the liabilities that has been exempted according to a composition deed, the relevant debtor may, as of the day when the composition deed is concluded, not bear the liabilities of compensation.

Chapter X Bankrupt Liquidation

Section I Announcement of Bankruptcy

Article 107 Where the people's court announces a debtor bankrupt according to the provisions of the present Law, it shall, within 5 days as of the day when the decision is made, serve it on the relevant debtor and bankruptcy administrator, and shall, within 10 days as of the day when the decision is made, notify the already-known creditors and announce it as well.

Where a debtor is announced bankrupt, the debtor is named as the bankrupt and the debtor's assets are taken as the insolvent assets. The creditor's right against the debtor when the people's court accepts an application for bankruptcy is the credit of bankruptcy.

Article 108 Before any bankruptcy is announced, under any of the following circumstances, the people's court shall decide to terminate the procedures for bankruptcy and announce it as well:

(1)Where a third party provides any full-amount guaranty to or pays off all the debts as due for the debtor; or

(2)Where the debtor has paid off all the due debts.

Article 109 An owner of the right to guaranty on the particular assets of the bankrupt may enjoy the priority right to be repaid by means of the particular assets.

Article 110 Where a creditor that enjoys the right as prescribed in the provisions of Article 109 of the present Law exercises the priority right to be repaid, the un-repaid creditor's right shall be the common creditor's right. Where the priority right to be repaid is given up, the creditor's right shall be taken as the common creditor's right.

Section II Conversion and Distribution

Article 111 A bankruptcy administrator shall draft a conversion plan of insolvent assets and submit it to the creditor's meeting for discussion.

A bankruptcy administrator shall, according to the conversion plan of insolvent assets that has been adopted at the creditor's meeting or that has been confirmed by the people's court according to the provisions of paragraph 1, Article 65 of the present Law, sell the insolvent assets by means of conversion at a proper time.

Article 112 A sale of insolvent assets by means of conversion shall be conducted through auction, unless there is any other resolution at the creditor's meeting.

An insolvent enterprise may be wholly or partially sold by means of conversion. Where an enterprise is sold by means of conversion, the intangible assets and other assets thereof may be solely sold by means of conversion.

As to the assets that shall not be auctioned or whose transfer is restricted, it shall be handled through the method as prescribed by the state.

Article 113 The insolvent assets shall, after the costs for bankruptcy proceedings and community liabilities are repaid in priority, be liquidated according to the following sequence:

- (1) The wages and subsidies for medical treatment and disability, comfort and compensatory expenses as defaulted by the bankrupt, the fundamental old-age insurance premiums, fundamental medical insurance premiums that shall have been transferred to the employees' personal account as well as the compensation for employees as prescribed by the relevant laws and administrative regulations;
- (2) The social insurance premiums and tax fees as defaulted by the bankrupt other than those as prescribed by the aforesaid provisions; and
- (3) The common credit of bankruptcy.

Where the insolvent assets are not enough to satisfy the requirements for liquidation in a same sequence, it shall be distributed according to the proportion.

The wages of the directors, supervisors as well as senior managers of an insolvent enterprise shall be calculated in light of the average wage of employees.

Article 114 The insolvent assets shall be subject to monetary distribution, unless it is separately decided at the creditors' meeting.

Article 115 A bankruptcy administrator shall formulate a distribution plan of insolvent assets in a timely manner, and submit it to the creditor's meeting for discussion:

A distribution plan of insolvent assets shall indicate the following matters:

- (1) Names and domiciles of the creditors that attend the distribution of insolvent assets;
- (2) The amount of the creditor's right that is involved in the distribution of insolvent assets;
- (3) The amount of insolvent assets as ready for distribution;
- (4) The sequence, proportion and amount of insolvent assets subject to distribution; and
- (5) The measures for distributing insolvent assets.

After a distribution plan of insolvent assets is adopted at the creditors' meeting, the relevant bankruptcy administrator shall submit the plan to the people's court for confirmation.

Article 116 A distribution plan of insolvent assets shall, upon confirmation of the people's court, be executed by the relevant bankruptcy administrator.

Where a bankruptcy administrator implements a distribution in installments according to a distribution plan of insolvent assets, it shall announce the amount of assets and the creditor's right in the distribution. Where a bankruptcy administrator implements a conclusive distribution in a lump sum, it shall be indicated in the announcement, wherein the matters as prescribed in paragraph 2, Article 117 of the present Law shall be indicated as well.

Article 117 As to any creditor's right subject to the requirement for effectiveness or rescission, a bankruptcy administrator shall preserve the distribution share in advance.

As to the distribution share as preserved by the bankruptcy administrator in advance in the preceding paragraph, on the announcement day of the conclusive distribution, where the requirement for effectiveness is not satisfied or the requirement for rescission is satisfied, it shall be distributed to the other creditors; on the announcement day of the conclusive distribution, where the requirement for effectiveness is satisfied or the requirement for rescission is not satisfied, it shall be delivered to the creditors.

Article 118 The distribution shares of the insolvent assets that have not been collected by creditors shall be preserved by the relevant bankruptcy administrator in advance. Where a creditor fails to collect its share within 2 months as of the last day of distribution announcement, it shall be deemed as a waiver of the right to collect the distribution share. The bankruptcy administrator or the people's court shall distribute the preserved distribution share to other creditors.

Article 119 Where the insolvent assets are distributed, as to any creditor's right that has not been settled by action or arbitration, a bankruptcy administrator shall preserve the distribution share in advance. Where any distribution share fails to be collected within 2 years as of the day when the procedures for bankruptcy are concluded, the people's court shall distribute the preserved distribution share to other creditors.

Section III Conclusion of the Procedures for Bankruptcy

Article 120 In the case of no asset for the bankrupt to distribute, the relevant bankruptcy administrator shall request the people's court to terminate the procedures for bankruptcy.

A bankruptcy administrator shall, upon conclusion of a conclusive distribution, report to the people's court a report on the distribution of insolvent assets in a timely manner and request the people's court to terminate the procedures for bankruptcy.

The people's court shall, within 15 days as of the day when a request of a bankruptcy administrator to conclude the procedures for bankruptcy is received, make a decision on whether to conclude the procedures. Any decision on concluding the procedures shall be announced.

Article 121 A bankruptcy administrator shall, within 10 days as of the day when the procedures for bankruptcy are concluded, handle the formalities for write-off in the organ as originally in charge of the registration of the bankrupt upon the strength of the decision of the people's court on concluding the procedures for bankruptcy.

Article 122 A bankruptcy administrator shall terminate the performance of its functions and duties on the following day after it completes the formalities for the registration of write-off, unless the relevant action or arbitration has not been concluded.

Article 123 Within 2 years as of the day when the procedures for bankruptcy are concluded according to the provisions of paragraph 4, Article 43 or Article 120 of the present Law, under any of the following circumstances, a creditor may request the people's court to make an additional distribution according to the distribution plan of insolvent assets:

(1) Where the relevant assets shall be recovered according to the provisions of Article 31, 32, 33 or 36 of the present Law; and

(2) Where the bankrupt has any other asset that shall have been distributed.

Under any of the following circumstances as prescribed in the preceding paragraph, yet where the amount of assets are not enough to meet the expenses for distribution, no additional distribution may be held and the relevant assets shall be turned over by the people's court into the state treasury.

Article 124 The guarantor and other joint and several debtors of the bankrupt shall, upon conclusion of the procedures for bankruptcy, bear the joint and several liabilities of repayment of the creditor's right that has not been repaid according to the procedures for bankrupt liquidation and according to law.

Chapter XI Legal Liabilities

Article 125 Where a director, supervisor or senior manager violates his obligations of being honest and diligent and thus leads to enterprise bankruptcy, he shall be subject to the relevant civil liabilities according to law.

No person under any circumstance as prescribed in the preceding paragraph may, within 3 years as of the day when the procedures for bankruptcy are concluded, assume the post of director, supervisor or senior manager of any enterprise.

Article 126 For any staff member of a debtor who is obligated to attend the creditor's meeting yet fails to do so upon summon of the people's court without any justifiable reason, the people's court may summon him by force and impose upon him a fine according to law. Where any staff member of a debtor violates the provisions of the present Law by refusing to illustrate or answer, or producing any false statement or answer, the people's court may impose upon him a fine according to law.

Article 127 Where a debtor violates the provisions of the present Law by refusing to submit any required material to the people's court or submit thereto any fraud statement on financial status, checklist of debts, checklist of the creditor's right, financial statement or payment statement of its employees' wages or social insurance premiums, the people's court may impose a fine upon the directly liable person according to law.
